Claiming $10,276.57, Charles W. Groover, 124 South Morris avenue, Morrisville, has named King Farms Company, Falls township, the defendant in an action in trespass.

According to the statement of claim in the office of Prothonotary Isaac S. Gross, a truck owned by the defendant and a car operated by the plaintiff, collided at the Post road and Bristol pike in Falls township, September 28, 1947. The plaintiff's car was damaged to the extent of $276.57.

Kenneth L. Eastman, 24 Yates street, Lacey Park, has begun an action in divorce against his wife, Eleanor A. Eastman, 10 Adams street, Lacey Park. They were married November 4, 1944, at Bellingham, Washington. They separated May 29, this year. In a "return" filed by the Sheriff, H. Raymond Ahlun, of Quakertown, it was marked "not found" indicating that Mrs. Eastman does not live any longer at that address.

Junior Police Patrol
Keeps Order at Playground

PERKASIE, Aug. 5—A junior police patrol, consisting of 12 boys, has been organized by Chief of Police Harvey J. Wambold, who is directing the group to keep order among the children attending the playgrounds here.

Numerous complaints have been received that the 499 children using the playground daily, annoy the residents of the playground vicinity, and that the children were getting out of hand.

Chief Wambold has organized the junior police patrol having a set-up similar to school traffic squads. Supervisors of the playground are also aiding in keeping order. The police patrol will be on duty at the grounds during the recreational program.

Chief Burgess Roy Benner stated that many of the complaints have been since the organization of the patrol.

AMEND THE BY-LAWS

PENNSDEL, Aug. 5—The Bucks County Lincoln Highway Kiwanis club was scheduled to have its picnic on Tuesday evening, but a heavy downpour of rain forced a postponement of the event until August 17th. A regular meeting was held instead, at the Royal Gardens, Bensalem township.

Several amendments to the by-laws were presented to the club, and after careful evaluation and study they were acted upon. H. O. Waldkoenig delighted the group with several reels of interesting films. Places of interest, such as Lake George, Long Lake and Niagara Falls, N. Y., were shown. These pictures were taken by Mr. Waldkoenig.

Paul Sauerby announced that on August 7th the club will take a group of "kiddies" to Shibe Park to witness a game between the "Phillies" and St. Louis Cardinals. The group will leave from the Royal Gardens at 12:30.

On Tuesday evening, August 10th, the club will hold a brief dinner-meeting and then will go to Shibe Park to see a twilight double-header between the Athletics and Washington.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, accused as a Soviet spy ring leader, was shown yesterday in Washington to have been held in key Government posts for four years after naval intelligence had impeached his integrity. Mr. Silvermaster denied having acted as an agent for a foreign power, but refused to testify whether he was a Communist.

In the case of William W. Remington of the Commerce Department, the Navy Secretary refused to discuss the circumstances under which the accused official had resigned his Navy commission.

In New York, the Communist party's national convention adopted a formal resolution presented by Jacob Stachel, one of twelve Communist leaders under indictment, as a reply to the Washington spy ring testimony. The resolution called the whole matter a "circus" and an "opium dream."

On the political front, Senate Republicans made a formal surrender to the entrenched Southerners on the anti-poll tax filibuster and planned to adjourn Tuesday or Wednesday, having acted on only a limited part of the President's program.

The President sent two Cabinet officers and an economic adviser to

Fire Causes $5000 Loss
At Plant In Chalfont

CHALFONT, Aug. 5—A $5,000 loss by fire was experienced at the Frank D. Good Concrete Products plant, here, on Tuesday.

The Chalfont Fire Company was called to the scene of the fire and kept the flames confined to the boiler room. A clock stopped at 2:15 a. m., and it is believed the fire started at that time.

There was an unfortunate delay because a woman, who smelled something burning, instead of calling the Chalfont Fire Company, attempted to notify Dr. and Mrs. Frank D. Good.

Unable to get the owner, the woman managed to get a son, P. David Good, who alerted his parents.

TO RECEIVE BUS BIDS

DOYLESTOWN, Aug. 5—Filling of six vacancies on Doylestown high school faculty, faces the newly-elected supervising principal of Doylestown schools, Dr. J. Edward Smith. Dr. Smith officially began his administration this week. He succeeds Dr. J. Leonard Halderman, who resigned.

At a meeting of the school board on Monday evening, Dr. Smith was authorized to interview teachers for the six vacancies.

The resignation of Miss Margaret Martin, Latin teacher, was formally accepted.

Dr. Smith was authorized because of the emergency situation to obtain two or more bids for 79 desk chair combinations which will be needed for two rooms which will be vacated by the manual training department. The manual training department will be located in the Exhibition Building, which the school board recently purchased from David Burpee.

The board also decided to receive bids for the purchase of a new bus with a capacity of 48 passengers which will be used to transport boys and girls from the school building at East Court and Broad streets to the new school tract on West Court street.

The matter of procuring insurance in the P. I. A. A. for the football players who will do some training in a football camp, was left in the hands of William E. Wolfe, director of athletics. President H. John Rosenberger also mentioned that the board will pay for the cost of transporting the boys to the camp, near Pottstown.

Shirley Booth Will Star
In "The Vinegar Tree"

NEW HOPE, Aug. 5—Shirley Booth has been engaged by Theron Bamberger to star in "The Vinegar Tree," at the Bucks County Playhouse, the week beginning Monday, August 9th.

This is a comedy hit by Paul Osborne in which Mary Boland starred on Broadway.

Miss Booth, who lives with her husband, William Baker, Jr., on their farm in Newtown, is as much a favorite on the "straw hat" circuit as she is on Broadway. Last summer she appeared at the New Hope theatre in her original role in "My Sister Eileen."

CONGRESSIONAL SUBPOENA IS ISSUED FOR
J. V. PETERS, WHO ALLEGEDLY HEADED THE COMMUNIST 'UNDERGROUND' HERE DURING WAR

By Raymond Wilcoxe

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON Aug. 5—(INS)—A Congressional subpoena has been issued and reportedly served on J. V. Peters, mysterious figure who allegedly headed the entire Communist "underground" in the U. S. during the war.

Peters is wanted for questioning by the House Un-American Activities Committee which today will hear Alger Hiss, former key State Department official accused of having been a member of the underground.

Hiss will appear at his own request to deny the accusation of Miss Elizabeth Bentley, self-confessed Soviet spy courier, who said he was one of the "elite" placed in high government positions by the communists.

Rep. Mundt (R) S. D., acting committee chairman, said the committee had been seeking Peters "for years" but was unable to locate him. A renewed effort to serve him, however, was directed when Watson B. Miller, Immigration Commissioner, indicated that Peters could be located. It was reported today that investigators have served the subpoena.

Peters was described as the "head of the whole underground in the United States" by Whittaker Chambers, who broke with the Communist Party in 1937. Chambers now is a magazine editor.

Hiss is president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. While with the State Department he served as Secretary General of the San Francisco Conference at which the United Nations Charter was drawn. He has denied ever being a Communist Party member or knowing Miss Bentley.

Secretary of State Marshall said the Department never had anything in its files to indicate that Hiss might be subversive.

As Hiss prepared to take the stand new sensations were awaited in the strange tale of how the Communist underground allegedly reached into high government places, including the White House, for wartime information.

Mundt said the committee is prepared to hear Lanchlin Currie, administrative assistant to the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, whenever he requests the opportunity to testify.

Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, named by Miss Bentley as a "probable" agent of the Russian secret police, testified that Currie interceded for him when the Office of Naval Intelligence urged that Silvermaster be dismissed from his wartime post in the Board of Economic Warfare.

Silvermaster stated that Currie got the then Secretary of War Robert Patterson to investigate the ONI's charges against him. He submitted a letter from Patterson which he said cleared him.

The text of the letter was not made public. Robert Stripling, the committee's chief investigator, told

FORMER TEACHER AT

ery in New Jersey

IS FATHER OF TWO

NEWTOWN, Aug. 5—Held for the action of the grand jury on the charge of forgery, Paul S. Kunkel, 28, Newtown, R. D. 1, is in the Hunterdon Co. (N. J.) Jail. He was arrested last week in the Hunterdon County National Bank, Flemington, N. J.

Kunkel who, according to County Detective Ray Bastedo, taught school in Richboro the past year, pleaded guilty to the charge before Justice of the Peace Emmert Hoffman, Flemington, after Thomas Blanchard, an officer of the bank, identified him as the man who opened an account on Monday in the name of John H. Gaynor, 71 North Main street, Lambertville. Kunkel does not have a contract to teach in the Richboro school next year.

Bastedo said that Kunkel had forged Gaynor's signature on a check for $240 which he used to open an account in Flemington National Bank, a check for $29 which he used as a down payment on a $278 camera purchased from a store in Philadelphia and a check for $65 with which he purchased four tires from a store in Trenton.

Kunkel used identification papers which were in a wallet lost by Gaynor here two months ago, Bastedo said.

According to Bastedo, Kunkel opened an account in the Hunterdon County National Bank in Gaynor's name with a $19 cash deposit on Monday, and then went to the Flemington National Bank, where

Jailed on Charge of Attempting to Kill

MORRISVILLE, Aug. 5—As the result of the discharge of a .28 calibre police special revolver at King Farms, on Monday evening, at 9 o'clock, Walter Franklin, 32, of Pompton, Fla., is in Bucks county jail in default of $1,999 bail. Hearing in the case was before Justice of the Peace John Melvin, Fallsington.

Franklin was charged with attempting to kill and pointing and discharging a firearm.

At the hearing it was brought out that Franklin fired two shots through the window at the home of Willie Strozler, 36, King Farms, Morrisville, R. D. It was stated that Franklin mistook Strozler for Sammy Lee Smith, of Waynesboro, Ga. It was further stated that he wanted to "get" Smith, whom Franklin claimed had written a letter to Franklin's girl friend. Strozler is said to have been the bearer of the missive.

When the shot was fired Strozler claims it came so close to his face that he felt the blast. He was playing cards at the time, and Smith was said to be lying on a blanket on the floor.

The trio is employed at the King Farms.

OTHER FEATURES

TREVOSE, Aug. 5—The Wilkie Male Chorus of 28 trained voices, under leadership of Allan W. Kinloch, Sr., will be one of the entertainment features presented to patrons during the Trevose Country Fair, to be held this year in Simpson Grove on the evenings of August 13 and 14. The chorus, a Philadelphia organization, will make the trip to Trevose on August 14, bringing with them Miss Dorothy Craven as guest soloist. The program will be given in the auditorium and will include vocal and instrumental numbers interspersed with some comedy.

The fair, an annual event taking place during the second week in August each year, has grown steadily in popularity with residents of surrounding communities. Provision is being made to welcome friends from Langhorne, Hultmeville, Bristol and surrounding communities.

It is sponsored by Trevose Methodist Church, and proceeds of the fair are used in carrying on and expanding work of the church in the community. The church has recently purchased additional ground and is embarking upon a program of extending and improving its Sunday School facilities for the greater benefit of the youth of surrounding territory. The Rev. Delray Meixell, pastor, is an active member of the fair planning committee.

Among the old favorites to be seen again this year are the sound "movies," shown by George Schaeffer, Sr., the produce table with Mrs. Harold Johnson and Mrs. Mabel Blank in charge; the candy booth cared for by Miss K. Stewart, and the jewelry table, supervised by Miss Emily Willard; regressive tables, manned by George Martin, George Haigh and George Schaeffer, Jr.; while the fancy work booth, with Mrs. Olive Niebergall's committee in attendance, is featuring a large variety of gift aprons.

Repeating favorites, but "under new management," are the bake sale, to be held on Saturday afternoon under direction of Mrs. Mary Barnard, the "white elephant" booth

Tucker Car Display
Attracts Hundreds Here

The much publicized and radically designed Tucker car was on display here yesterday. Hundreds displayed the showroom of Hamm's Tucker Sales and Service, Highway and McKinley street. Displayed with the car were two motors which were carefully examined by the spectators.

The car, radically designed in the fact that the engine is in the rear and that three headlights instead of two are on the front of the car, arrived at about nine o'clock yesterday morning.

The car was immediately put on display and the crowds began to gather. Employees could not get sufficient time to wipe the car off after its trip through the rain. From that time on the spectators milled about the machine and asked questions.

A number of orders were booked. This morning the car was taken to Germantown for display purposes.

MILLIONS FOR FRANKS

Fact that American boys cut some didoes while serving in foreign countries during the war is not exactly news to their folks.
They've seen them do it right here at home.

But the fact that big-hearted
Uncle Sam is still forking over millions of dollars to pay for the pranks of rambunctious GIs is news. It would be interesting to know how many foreign racket-teers and grafters are pulling Uncle Sam's leg in that game.

A GI jeep cut sharply in front of a New Zealand street car, forcing the operator to stop abruptly. An allegedly injured passenger collected damages. A note signed by "Pvt. Mortimer Snerd" of the American Army was perfectly good for a payment from Uncle Sam on the claim of a Briton that Americans chopped down trees.

A South Seas native claimed he lost five coconut palms and dugged into the U. S. Treasury for damages. When U. S. airmen made mistakes and dropped bombs on neutral territory, Uncle Sam paid cheerfully. Swiss claims alone cost him $16,000,000.

But Uncle Sam isn't a sucker every time. A North African farmer claimed the battle of the Kasserine Pass was fought on his land and asked for $292,375.
He got $448 for damages to his soil. A British sergeant filed for $5,000 for being wounded when allegedly stabbed by an American.
He failed to collect after an inquiry showed the sergeant and his friends started the fight over a girl and the American acted in self-defense.

ALWAYS ON THE DOT

The watch we want has been invented but unfortunately is not yet ready for the market. Nor do we know what it will look like or whether carrying it around will involve more trouble than the good to be got out of it.

There are, however, three features about this watch which will make it attractive to every citizen.
It will never run down. It will not have to be wound. It will keep exact time for 1,000,000,000 years.

By now you probably have guessed that this bit of jewelry is another of those atomic age prospects. That is right. Scientists in the United States Bureau of Standards say that they know how to put the watch together.
But so far they have not given any clue as to the date of manufacture. But it will be worth waiting for.

Inside Your Congress

Translation of A Message

—by—
SAMUEL B. PETTINGILL
"The Gentleman from Indiana"

Mr. Speaker, Gentlemen of the Congress: Here is a translation of my recent message.

We need more schools. As the Federal government owes $250,000,- 000,000 and the 48 states altogether owe only $1 for every $100 of Federal debt it is plain that the Federal government must aid the 48 states to build schools. The states are too poor to build schools.

The Federal government has no source of revenue which is not within the boundaries of the 48 states. Therefore the Federal government must tax money out of the states and then send some of it back into the states so that the states can carry on. It is important to revitalize our state governments.

Prices of food are too high. I, therefore, recommend that the Federal government put floors under agricultural prices—now 225% of pre-war to prevent prices from falling. In that way, we can surely relieve the high cost of living. My previous recommendation of an all-time low, it is plain that the Tart-Hartley Law has failed. We should repeal that iniquitous act so that we may have industrial peace. The next time John L. Lewis cuts the nation's coal supply to zero, I will need no law to deal with him. I will just talk things over with John.

If, however, the railroad men go out on strike, I shall recommend that they be drafted into the army and subjected to martial law. My previous recommendation on this subject went unheeded by the worst Congress, or the second-worst Congress, in history.

We are short of housing, especially for young ex-G.I.s. I, therefore, recommend that our laws be changed to admit 100,000 additional immigrants who will need housing.
That will greatly alleviate the housing shortage, which is one of our most pressing problems.

Federal prohibition was such a failure that the 18th Amendment was overwhelmingly repealed. This proves conclusively that Federal civil rights legislation will unquestionably succeed. It should be passed NOW.

A state tax of a dollar a year in order to vote is a denial of democracy. The Federal government should repeal these state laws.
However, the right of a labor union to tax its members for political purposes, or take away their jobs is of the very essence of democracy.
Mr. Cecil B. DeMille, who challenged this union right, is a reactionary.

The Federal government must stop mob law that results in lynching in the whole country last year, we must pass this legislation at once.
Positive action is long overdue. It would, however, be an unconstitutional invasion of the rights of the states for the Federal government to make mob law in labor disputes a Federal crime. The guarantees of the Constitution are real and vital.

As I have said before, "At least $600,000,000 should be invested by industry to improve and expand our productive facilities over the next few years." I therefore recommend that the Federal government tax more of the profits out of industry so that industry can proceed with this necessary improvement of our productive facilities.

As one-fourth of our people last year spent more than they earned, it was a great mistake for Congress, over my veto, to pass its rich man's tax reduction bill reducing taxes for everybody and relieving millions from any income tax at all.
I have got to have forty billion bucks. Taxes must not be reduced.
Tax reductions would leave more money in the people's pockets which they would spend, and thus cause inflation. Only the Government can be trusted not to spend the people's money!

PENNA. LEADS NATION IN CONSTRUCTION

Highway Improvements In Four Months Totaled
$56,708,000

PROGRESS IS GREAT

(Prepared for The Courier by the State Planning Board, Department of Commerce.)

The latest report of the Federal Works Agency shows that Pennsylvania is still leading the Nation in the volume of public construction being carried on through departments of the State Government.

In both February and March of this year Pennsylvania awarded more public construction contracts than any other state. In 1948, during the first four months of the year, total highway improvements in Pennsylvania represented expenditures of $56,708,000, a total $5 per cent greater than that of the second state in highway improvement. More than one-seventh of all highway contracts awarded in the United States during that period were for Pennsylvania construction. During the same four months of the previous year, Pennsylvania had also led all states in the Nation in its total expenditures for highway development.

In the latest month for which comparable data are available, March, 1948, the total new public construction undertaken by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania totaled $13,759,000, which was more than twice that of any other state government.

What is being done this year to bring the physical equipment of the State to the highest pitch of efficiency is a sound investment in Pennsylvania's future. Comparative employment figures between our own and other Northeastern States indicate that the investment is already beginning to pay off.

CUNNINGHAM OUT TO STEAL SHOW AT LANGHORNE TRACK

Pepper Cunningham stole the show at Langhorne last stock car race and expects to really take it home with him this time out. This time out means August 15th when the boys travel the extra long two hundred mile route over the one mile dirt oval so near to this fair city.

"I've driven midget racers and big car jobs and everything on four wheels," said Cunningham, who finished third last time after leading most of the way only to blow a tire, "but the stock jobs are my love. You can bump a guy once in a while, and bang back into the track and keep going."

Cunningham bumped three out of his way in the 100 miler. He blew a tire, a right front tire, too, on the first turn and still kept the car under control.

"The average motorist wants to know, and often wonders, if he will be clearly out of control with a blown tire up front by the steering," said Pepper. "Well, I guess I showed them all. You can hold it. All you have to do is keep your head clear and not panic."

Pepper will line up with the Flock brothers and other stars of the stock organization when the 200 miler is run.

One of the few northerners in the outfit, he respects the "rebels" as he calls them. "Some time," said Pepper to Stover Babcock, the promoter, "I think these rebels are madmen. Always I know they are smart. In Atlanta, Ga., where the stock car game is hottest, they must wheel their babies around in stock cars instead of baby coaches. So they grow up fast and dangerous, believe me."

Stock car racing is taking over in the north fast and in another year will rival even Atlanta for a claim to the center of the sport and in the north, Cunningham, nicknamed "Pepper," leads all the rest.

YOUTH LEAGUE MAY START QUARTER-FINALS

Quarter-finals of the Bristol Youth League will get under way tonight with two games being scheduled. In the contest on Leedom's field, the Junior Hibernians will meet Bell's Aces, while on the Terrace grounds, Newportville will play Bristol Terrace. Both games are scheduled for six o'clock.

Croydon A. C., which finished the season in first place, will not see action until the final round, waiting to see which team wins the eliminations.

"Pete" Rubino will most likely draw the pitching assignment of manager Francis Singer, of the Hibernians, while Petrizzi may do the hurling for Dudley Bell's team.

"Dave" Muth will toss them for the Terrace team with Paul Schmidt doing the pitching for Newportville.

The same four teams will be in action tomorrow evening. Bell's and Hibernians will play on Leedom's field with Terrace going to Newportville.

HULMEVILLE

A vacation trip by motor has been conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Black, Trenton road. They visited at Gettysburg, Harrisburg, Mt. Carmel, Hershey, Pa.; then spent a few days at Atlantic City, N. J.

BRISTOL HIGH SPORTS IN "RED" FOR TERM

Basketball Is Only Sport to Show Profit; Football Is Money Loser

SPRING SPORTS LOSS

Sports at Bristol high school last term ended with a deficit of $107.77, according to the annual report filed with the Bristol school board Tuesday evening.

Basketball was the only sport to show a profit, football and the spring sports all losing money. The profit from basketball was $1199.95, while there was a loss of $851.52 on football, and $456.20 on spring sports. The total income on sports was $6,019.99, while expenditures amounted to $6,118.67, causing a total loss of $107.77.

The income from football was $2,862.42 while expenditures were $3,713.94, resulting in a loss of $851.52. The basketball receipts totaled $3,018.28, and expenditures amounted to $1,818.33, with a profit of $1,199.95 resulting.

The income from spring sports was $139.20, while expenditures amounted to $595.40, resulting in a loss of $456.20.

The increased seating capacity which is to be provided for football games is expected to turn a loss from this activity into a profit. The bleachers have arrived and will shortly be assembled and erected on the high school field.

SUMMERTIME FOODS SHOULD BE FREE OF RICH INGREDIENTS

By Flora-May Sagul.

Home Economics Representative.

Summertime foods that are light and free from rich ingredients help a clever homemaker create coolness in meals. Jellied soups, tall, frosted glasses of fruit or milk drinks, and well-chilled fruits, berries or melons should appear often on summer menus.

Many foods traditional in summer are simple and easy to prepare, allowing the homemaker hours of freedom from the kitchen. Good planning and a well-stocked refrigerator make the preparation of a tempting cold platter easy and quick. This does not mean that families are going to be satisfied with an entirely cold meal three times a day. Each meal should include one or two hot dishes, but these can be foods that require little cooking time. Serve cooked fresh vegetables, clear soups, simple cheese or egg dishes, boiled meats. Even though summer meals may be lighter, they should include the basic seven foods and be just as well balanced and nutritious as meals in any other season.

Fresh mint has a cool flavor that is appropriate for garnishing fresh fruit salad, iced fruit drinks, and frozen desserts. Try serving a little chopped mint on buttered carrots or peas to be served with lamb.

A sprig of mint and a bit of colorful fruit frozen in gingerale, water, or cold tea in ice cube trays make an attractive addition to fruit drinks.

MOVIE EVIDENCE

HARRISBURG—(INS)—The regulation-bound public utility commission had something different one day recently to relieve it from the usual routine. The Paoli Business Association broke a precedent by showing a movie to support its complaint against the state highways department and the Pennsylvania Railroad. The association argued that dangerous conditions existed at a bridge over the railroad's main line tracks on North Valley Road in Paoli, Chester County.

CONTINUE TO SCHEDULE GAMES RAINED OUT

Games of the Bristol Suburban League scheduled for last evening, were again called because of the rain.

Two games are called for this evening. St. Ann's will play the Fifth Ward Sporting Club on Memorial Park field, while Goodwill Hose plays Langhorne Legion on the latter's field.

Both games have an important bearing on the league's standing. Goodwill Hose is one-half game away from the pace-setting St. Ann's team. The firemen also have the Democrat Club to meet in another game next week. St. Ann's has to meet both Fifth Ward and Langhorne Legion next week.

"Mike" Deitch will hurl against Fifth Ward, with the Warders most likely using "Bill" Stockton or "Smithers" Cordisco. "Herm" Fiuma or Jack Hansen will throw them against Langhorne. The Legion's new manager, Howard Black, intends to use either "Charlie" Martindell or "Al" Knox on the mound.

Both games will begin at six o'clock.

Penna. Neeley to Receive Bigger Relief Grants

HARRISBURG, Aug. 5—(INS)—Pennsylvania's 285,000 needy today are scheduled to receive increased relief grants effective October 1.

The increase, expected to be in the neighborhood of 10 per cent, is designed to offset the soaring cost of living index for indigents.

Blind pensioners will be excluded because their allotments are fixed by law.

The boost, second within a year, will send the Department of Public Assistance well over its $135,850,000 appropriation earmarked for relief for the 1947-49 biennium.

The anticipated increase will add almost $4,000,000 to the relief bill during the last seven months of the 1947-49 biennium.

Gov. James H. Duff refused to comment on the increase but indicated it was being prepared with his full approval.

Public Assistance Secretary Frank A. Robbins, Jr., said details of increase still are being worked out.

"We have been giving some consideration to increases in the general level of assistance grants," he said. "Announcement will be made in ample time before October 1."

Robbins said the benefit hike will cover general assistance, blind pension, old age assistance and aid to dependent children rolls.

A 10 per cent hike, based on the State's average monthly relief expenditure of $5,719,000, will increase assistance costs approximately $570,000 a month.

NO PLACE LIKE JAIL

HOUSTON, Tex.—(INS)—There are some people who enjoy the blissful peace of a county jail. A 65-year-old man was arrested for drunkenness and spent the night in jail. His wife appeared the next morning and paid his $10 fine. The man was brought up to be released, but he saw his wife and hung back. "No, oh no!" he muttered and trotted back to his cell. No amount of persuasion could change his mind. Finally his wife gave up and left, depositing 50 cents with the desk sergeant for the man's bus fare home.

PENNSYLVANIA FARM ROUNDUP

By Jack Ward
(INS Pennsylvania Farm Editor)
HARRISBURG, Aug. 5—The farm of two Westmoreland county brothers has been selected by the Pennsylvania production and marketing committee for the state's third comprehensive agricultural conservation demonstration.

The farm, owned by William and David Parke, both veterans of World War II, will be completely transformed into a modern, efficient unit in two days of whirlwind activities sometime in October. It was purchased by the brothers a year ago under the G. I. Bill of rights through the Farmers Home Administration.

Located near Saltsburg, the farm contains 219 acres, including 85 acres of timber, and "is quite susceptible to erosion," according to the FPMC.

As in the two previous demonstrations in the state, the two-day project will accomplish "the equivalent of a 10-year program of conservation."

Equally important, the FPMC aid is the instruction county and community committees of the conservation program, veterans and other farmers will obtain in learning methods of saving soil and restoring fertility.

Farmers and conservation officials from 30 western Pennsylvania counties will attend the demonstration.

The exact date of the experiment will be fixed by County Agent D. H. Treager, who will determine a safe time for seeding wheat to prevent infestation of Hessian fly. Like the demonstrations at McVeytown, Mifflin county, and Lehigh, Carbon county, the Parke brothers entire farm will be laid out in contour strips, plowed, cultivated and seeded. Tons of lime and fertilizer, donated by suppliers will be used. Farm machinery will be donated by equipment manufacturers and labor will be performed by volunteers and "on-the-farm" veteran trainees.

More than 1000 farm youths from nearly all Pennsylvania's 67 counties will attend the 24th annual 4-H Club Week, August 9 to 12, at Pennsylvania State College, according to Allen L. Baker, state club leader.

The program will begin August 9 with registration and an address that evening by Dr. Lyman E. Jackson, dean of the school of agriculture.

Local club leaders who will accompany each delegation, county agricultural agents and home economics extension representatives, will hear Dr. M. E. John, head of the department of agricultural economics and rural sociology, discuss 4-H club work as "a factor in a national program of youth education."

BABY'S 'TUMMY' NOW RIGHT-SIDE UP

HER STOMACH right-side up again, fifteen-day-old Karen Ann has her first meal with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Alterman of Brooklyn, N. Y., after undergoing an unusual operation in Boston. Alterman, a 25-year-old dental mechanic, took the infant by plane to Boston Children's Hospital when the tot was born with an upside-down stomach. Karen was only two days old when she was operated on. (International)

Bedminster Girl Returns to Home

Although bids have been submitted by various businessmen for the purchase of a stove and ice box for the cafeteria, no action was taken last evening since the board had no record of what the specifications were in connection with the needs for the home economics department equipment.

Although the pay is $200, the board has not been able to find anyone who will take the school census. Two school teachers, William D. Zahniser and Luther Boyer, both of whom have served as census enumerators in former years, are no longer interested. The pay was upped from $175 to $200, but still there is no one who wants the job.

Tax Collector Robert W. Robinson said that within the past two years the census enumerator has brought in additional revenue of $1500 and $900 respectively.

pleaded with Margaret's classmates to aid in learning of her whereabouts. The Philadelphia newspapers and radio were contacted.

The father was adamant concerning the manner in which he contacted the place of employment where he found Margaret was working. She had managed to establish a small bank account.

In the statement given to the press Mr. Meyers said: "Margaret's parents have announced that there is reason for great pride in their daughter. Margaret, an inexperienced 16-year-old girl, had proved that she was capable of providing for herself. She also had established a small bank account."

No wants too small or great that a Want Ad will not solve.

Envoys Take Next Step In Russian Negotiations

MOSCOW, Aug. 5—(INS)—Envoys of America, Britain and France were believed today to have arranged the next step in negotiations with Russia for settlement of the Berlin crisis.

Diplomats of the three Western powers conferred at length last night. The talks were arranged after the three embassies reportedly received replies from their respective governments in answer to messages concerning last Monday's meeting with Premier Stalin.

While officials kept all dealings shrouded in secrecy, it was generally considered that the western representatives had been given further instructions on how to proceed.

Informed observers are inclined to the belief that the Russians will insist that plans for a proposed regime for all of Western Germany be abandoned if the situation in Berlin is to be improved.

These quarters cited previous Soviet contentions that the three-power plan for a West German government is contrary to the Potsdam agreement and in effect will split the German nation.

While significance of the latest joint talks remained hidden, their importance was emphasized by the fact that Britain's representative dispatched an immediate message to his government.

Frank Roberts, principal private secretary to British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, sent a note to the Foreign Office early today on the latest tri-power consultations.

The principal meeting was held at the British Embassy, at which the United States was represented by both Ambassador Lieut. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith and Embassy Counsellor Foy D. Kohler.

The conferees had a direct report on latest developments in Berlin from Francois Seydoux, political adviser to Gen. Joseph-Pierre Koenig, French military governor in Germany. Seydoux arrived in Moscow only yesterday from Berlin.

RECIPES

Cherry Cobbler

2 cups pitted cherries,
1/2 cup sugar,
1 tablespoon butter,
1 tablespoon quick cooking tapioca.

1/4 teaspoon nutmeg.
Sprinkle cherries with part of the sugar to form juice. Combine rest of sugar with tapioca and nutmeg, then add some of the fruit juice. Spread mixture over cherries in a baking dish and dot with butter. Cover with dough made by this recipe.

Blend two cups sifted flour, four teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 cup sugar. Cut in 1-3 cup shortening. Beat one egg well, then add to 3/4 cup milk. Add to dry ingredients. Drop by spoonfuls on cherry mixture. Bake in hot oven, 425 degrees, for 30 minutes.

Chiviricos

1/4 teaspoon salt,
3 tablespoons boiling water,
1/4 cup shortening,
1 cup sifted flour,
1/4 teaspoon baking powder,
1/4 cup sugar.

Melted fat or salad oil.
1/4 cup sugar.
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.
Add salt to boiling water. Place shortening in bowl. Add salted water and stir until shortening is almost melted. Sift together flour and baking powder. Add to shortening mixture to make a smooth dough. Roll out on lightly floured board to 1/8 inch thick. Cut into two-inch squares or rounds with cookie cutters. Heat fat to 375° F., or until a one-inch cube of bread will brown in about 40 seconds. Deep-fry or shallow-fry in the hot fat until pastry is browned on both sides. Drain on a rack. Mix together sugar and cinnamon. Sprinkle on top of pastries. Makes two dozen pastries.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

AMERICANS today are eating more cheese and cheese products than ever before. And it's no wonder, for few foods are more wholesome, versatile and tasty than cheese.

The A & P Service for Home-Makers suggests the following uses for cheese on your Sunday dinner menu.

Cottage Cheese Salad: Rub a large bowl with one garlic clove, put in two cups of cottage cheese, one teaspoon of salt and one-eighth teaspoon of paprika. Fold in two tablespoons of chopped chives or green onions, two tablespoons of chopped pimiento and one-fourth cup of diced celery. Unmold the mixture on center of a large salad plate, surround with watercress or other salad greens, thin cucumber slices, onion rings, carrot discs and tomato wedges. Serve with a salad dressing. This recipe will serve six.

Cheese Croquettes: Melt three tablespoons of butter and blend in one-third cup of flour, one-fourth teaspoon of salt, one-fourth teaspoon of paprika and one cup of milk. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add two slightly-beaten egg yolks, mix thoroughly and add one and one-half cups of cubed cheese. Cool, then shape into small balls and fry in deep fat (350° F.) until browned. This recipe will make 12 croquettes.

Cheese Rice Ring: Cook two tablespoons of chopped onion and one chopped green pepper in two tablespoons of butter, until tender. Then add one and one-half cups of cooked tomatoes and three and one-half cups of cooked rice. Cook slowly until rice has absorbed the liquid. Add one-fourth teaspoon of salt, a dash of pepper and one and one-half cups of grated sharp cheese. Pack into buttered ring mold, then unmold on to serving plate. Serves six.

Begin your Sunday dinner with French onion soup, followed by roast leg of lamb and mint sauce, the cheese rice ring, asparagus tips, green beans and dessert.

reporters that in it Patterson advised Milo Perkins, BEW head, that as far as the Army was concerned, it had no objection to his continuing to work there.

Currie said in New York that he had been consulted in 1942 about the loyalty of Silvermaster but had turned the whole matter over to the Army without further decision.

Silvermaster, it was brought out, held wartime federal jobs for four years after Army and Navy Intelligence and the Civil Service Commission had given his dismissal. The Russian-born witness declined to say whether he was a Communist, but asserted that he has never been "a spy or agent of any foreign government."

Rep. McDowell (R) Pa., said the committee will hear at their request, every person who has been accused during the course of the hearings, which began Saturday.

Among those named by Miss Bentley and Chambers as members of the Communist underground were Donald Hiss, Alger Hiss' brother; Lee Pressman, former CIO general counsel and now connected with the Wallace Third Party; John Abt, another Wallace supporter; Nathan Witt, former National Labor Relations Board attorney; former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Harry White, and numerous others.

Mundt revealed that Charles Kramer, also named by Chambers as an underground member, asked to be excused from testifying today because of illness.

Music on the two evenings will be furnished by a children's Hawaiian orchestra and by members of a string band. A magician will mystify his audience with sleight of hand performances, and Mrs. Edna Harding's fortune telling tent will add to the picture. The annual supper, held in connection with the fair, will take place on August 21, in the community house, and will be served by women of the W. S. C. S., Mrs. Sophy Hand-sholt, president. The facilities of the auditorium and of the cottagers' club house have been borrowed.

Mrs. Stephen Kraus, for many years chairman of the flower booth, is unable to take her place due to a continuing illness. She is, nevertheless, working hard for her project. She has been named honorary chairman of the booth, with Mrs. Elizabeth Schaeffer serving in an active capacity. Arthur B. Fraser is general treasurer of the fair committee.

PITTSBURGH (INS)—A gift of $44,000 to construct a "story book children's zoo" has been donated by the Sarah Mellon Scaife foundation in Pittsburgh. Mayor David L. Lawrence said the children's zoo will be in operation at Highland Park Zoo, near Pittsburgh, within 12 months. A small track will be built on which children will ride such animals as ponies, camels, dog teams and llama.

By Rev. Andrew G. Solla, D. D.
Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Our Saviour
